Memorandum for the Record

Subject: Senior Review Panel Meeting with
John Koehler, D/DCI/Resource Management

1. On 17 May, the Senior Review Panel met with John Koehler, D/DCI/Resource Management, at his office. Mr. Koehler welcomed the SRP and explained the role of his organization in the intelligence community, to include staff support to the DCI in presenting the budget of the intelligence community to Congress which gives the DCI more leverage over community resources and programs than previously.

2. Koehler explained the community budget program

3. When asked if his organization still did performance evaluation of the individual analytical products of the intelligence community, he explained that this had been done under the IC Staff but was no longer being done. However, his office does evaluate overall systems in a technical and resource utilization sense.

4. The meeting was cordial and informative, and a common desire was expressed to meet again.
